

Become a certified educator on the nationally recognized curriculum Project WET.

Project WET (Water Education for Teachers) is a nationally and internationally used environmental education curriculum with activities that are interdisciplinary, hands-on, easy to use, and fun. Learn more about Project WET at <http://www.projectwet.org/>.

October 7, 2017 (Saturday)

Raven Run Nature Sanctuary in Lexington, KY

Time: 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM (eastern time zone)

Registration fee: $45 (includes Project WET guidebook, lunch, snacks, and workshop materials)

Lodging is not provided. Participants are responsible for arranging and paying for their own lodging during the training.

Payment: Pay in advance by mail. Payment must arrive 5 business days after the “last day to register.” Make checks payable to: University of Kentucky. In the memo line, please write the participant’s name and date of training. Mail checks to Carmen Agouridis, Biosystems and Agricultural Engineering Department, 207 C.E. Barnhart Building, Lexington, KY 40546-0276.

Registration: Register at <https://www.uky.edu/bae/cpd> or by contacting Carmen Agouridis at carmen.agouridis@uky.edu or 859-218-4344. UK/KSU extension personnel may register on KERS (training will be posted soon).

Last Day to Register:

September 29, 2017

Last Day to Cancel:

September 28, 2017

Instructional Hours: 6 (Credit given for attendance at entire workshop. Partial credit not given.)

For questions, contact Carmen Agouridis at carmen.agouridis@uky.edu or 859-218-4344.